Access to family planning is essential to securing the well-being and autonomy of women in developing communities. Family planning is one of the most powerful tools we can use to interrupt the cycle of grinding poverty that oppresses women and limits their life choices. Incorporating family planning into basic health care services improves maternal and child health and welfare while also conserving natural resources.

Read More...